

Warden Message from US Embassy
Thursday, February 3rd, 2011

We are aware of internet messages by various groups in Bahrain that are seeking to arrange a day of protests on 14 February. We do not have any information at this time that there are likely to be significant disruptions on that day, and are not currently advising extra precautions beyond those listed in our last Demonstration Notice (Feb. 1), the Country Specific Information for Bahrain, or the Worldwide Caution available at <http://bahrain.usembassy.gov>. We will continue to monitor the situation and send out further information as warranted.

For the latest security information, U.S. citizens living and traveling abroad should regularly monitor the Department of State's Bureau of Consular Affairs Internet website at <http://travel.state.gov>, where the current Worldwide Caution, Consular Information Sheet for Bahrain, Travel Warnings and Travel Alerts can be found. Up-to-date information on security can also be obtained by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States and Canada or, for callers outside the United States and Canada, a regular toll line at 1-202-501-4444. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays).

The U.S. Embassy in Manama can be reached at (973) 1724-2700; the afterhours emergency number is (973) 1724-2957; the fax number is (973) 1725-6242. The Embassy's web site, which includes consular information and the most recent messages to the American community in Bahrain, is at <http://bahrain.usembassy.gov>.
